Heather Bernard is an active school parent and advocates for students in special education. She works as a homemaker and uses her extra time to serve in leadership for charitable organizations and support for education. Heather has formerly served as president for a local charitable organization and has served on a school advisory board for her younger children. She has been in active service for the last 17 years.

Heather has six children with her husband of 25 years. Two of the children are on the autism spectrum and five of the six have benefitted from the wonderful education and environment of the Oakstone family. The Bernard family has been part of the Oakstone community since 2009.

Heather brings experience in organization and education planning. She is excited to serve the Oakstone family in this capacity and will bring her energy and dedication to this opportunity to give back.
