3. Update on the reopening of the 2020-21 school year: Heading into the 4 th week, the school year is off to a great start. Schedules and plans are being followed for both in class and remote learning. New desks have arrived which have made proper spacing easier and new technical equipment is in place to aid in remote learning. Some contributing factors to the strong start include detailed planning by the administrative team, a proactive approach by the new team leader, new staff asking great questions and offering additional areas of expertise, the creation of a supported study hall at the end of every school day, a close watch on virtual learners, and one-on-one intervention specialist time for online learners during the study hall at the end of the day.
4. The superintendent's goals for the year were drafted: One goal deals with the complicated task of meeting students' individual academic needs through a variety of initiatives, resources, staff training, etc. during COVID. The other goal is continuing to lead the charge to promote academic improvement to align with the CCIP & School Improvement Plan, specifically to increase scores in English Language Arts & Math.
